

Exhibition cum sale KALAKRUTI organized by P.G. department of Textile Science and Apparel Design

On 22nd and 23rd February, 2018

P.G. Department of Textile Science and Apparel Design is organizing an Exhibition cum sale KALAKRUTI of variety of products made out of the traditional arts such as Kantha embroidery, Ribbon embroidery, African painting, Madhubani painting, Kalamkari, etc. on 22nd and 23rd February, 2018.

The Exhibition cum sale was inaugurated by Hon' able madam Vice-Chancellor Prof. Shashikala Wanjari on 22nd February, 2018. Madam appreciated the creativity and efforts taken by the students. All products displayed in exhibition are designed and developed by students of TSAD Department. Special attractions of the exhibition are T-shirts and jewelries made by using Egyptian Painting, block printed blouse pieces, stoles and dupattas, lamp shades made of combining tie and dye technique and embroidery, Apparels using combination of patch work and various embroidery techniques. Jewelries made out of macramé and African painting. Other products displayed in the exhibition are articles made of crochet like pen holders, jewelry box, earrings, dupattas, mobile covers, cushion covers etc. Students showed their creativity by making Warli motifs using tie and dye technique are done on dupattas and cushion covers. Ribbon embroidery done on shoes, jackets and wall panels, Products such as shoes, Kurtis, cushion covers, pouches are made by Patola motifs using Madhubani technique.