DEPARTMENT OF LIFELONG LEARNING & EXTENSION

The Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension [DLLE] (known earlier as Department of Adult and Continuing Education and Extension) established on 1971 and has been recognized as a statutory Department of the S.N.D.T. Women's University, Churchgate, Mumbai. Since, last five decades, DLLE promotes a meaningful and sustained rapport between the Non-Government Organisations, Universities and the various community as well as vulnerable groups. Department is committed both to the highest standards of excellence, and to ensuring that the University's unparalleled academic strengths and resources made available to as many interested learners as possible so as to play a pivotal role in reaching basic education to the masses. In the course of time, our department prospered on the dedication of the academic and non-teaching team for widely appreciated and honoured by the society for its dedication for the upliftment of the girl students from rural and remote areas.

As per National Education Policy 2020, we are continuing with multidisciplinary social sciences and humanities education too the focus had now to be on the use of technology with introduced a short-term certificate duration courses for all women of the society. Department consequently has established computer Centre, library, as well as Student Placement and Career Guidance Cell. Our academic activities and programmes extend across a range of Arts, Social Studies, Gender studies, designing, traditional and classical performing Arts.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL WORK

Department of Social Work started from 2004 with the mission is to create a cadre of professionally qualified social workers to work at all levels of the society. Our professional social work students increasingly acknowledged as a core profession in the process of social and human development. The professional activities enable the individuals, families, communities to satisfy their needs and resolve their problems, preferably in their own culture and social milieu. We are focusing on capacity building of women from all sections of society to become change agents for constructive development at the level of individuals and larger society through professional Social Work Education, training and practice. Keeping in view the current demand for professional social workers, the department of Department of Lifelong Learning & Extension has started Master of Social Work, with a special emphasis on development of competent and efficient Social Workers. Our vision is to provide educational opportunities leading to self-development of women as well as gaining professional expertise in social work such that they contribute to constructive social change and development. Their repertoire includes skills of interventions in micro, micro and macro contexts, e.g., with individual women, in communities in rural and urban contexts, work with and within state systems, conduct gender and intersectional analysis of development policies, and engage with collective mobilisation processes, conduct research, action and advocacy. They learn to use social work theories approaches to raise resources and develop small programmatic proposals for interventions.
