

SNDT Women's University
Incubation Centre

Invites innovative ideas from Students / faculty members / stakeholders.
to overcome the worldwide crisis of Covid-19

You can send your proposals on email to:

director-iii@sndt.ac.in

Incubation Centre SNDT Women's University and IndiaFirst Robotics LLM, Pine will provide all required assistance and mentoring to incubate innovative ideas further to provide solutions for effective management of critical/emergency situations.

Following are among the few areas to be addressed to for immediate solution:

1. Creating awareness among people with authentic information
2. Cellular structured commodities managing and sharing system.
3. Providing web-based system to assist health workers who are actively involved in field.
4. Solutions for Stress management of Children / elders
5. Effective online education system keeping in mind constraints of bandwidth
6. Innovative ways of city farming.
7. Online effective social or personal counselling.
8. Updating researchers to issues / problems and related databases to identify knowledge gaps.
9. Geographical information update about spread if Covid-19 for essential traffic management
10. Creating tools / methods/ techniques for smokers and tobacco users to create awareness related to higher risk of Covid-19.
11. Creating simple solutions to get databases of contact details during emergency
12. AI / ML based bots for counselling
13. Tools for effective and constructive utilisation of free time during stay at home.

And many more....

Important:

- a) Participation in the program is totally free
- b) Any person of any age group can participate
- c) Last Date of Application is 15 March 2022