

S.N.D.T. WOMEN'S UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL

Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.)

Three years Programme (Introduced in 2007)

Faculty of Interdisciplinary Studies

Programme code: 080

The LL.B. programme is a three year programme and was introduced in 2007.

PROGRAM OUTCOME
PO1	Legal Knowledge : To acquire & apply legal knowledge to the complex Socio
PO2	Professional Practice: to make students eligible to practice in Courts
PO3	Professional Skills: To possess professional skills required for legal practice such as Argument, Pleading, drafting, conveyancing etc
PO4	Professional Ethics: To understand and apply principles of professional ethics of legal profession
PO5	Legal research & legal reasoning: to develop legal research skills & legal reasoning and apply it during programme & in Legal practice
PO6	Self-employability: To provide a platform of self-employability by developing professional skills in legal industry
PROGRAM SPECIFIC OUTCOME
PSO1	Acquisition of advance knowledge in the specific chosen area of specialization.
PSO2	Interpretation and analyzing the legal and social problems and working towards the redressal of such problems by application of laws and regulations in force.
PSO3	The application of ethical principles and inculcating professional ethics, in order to undertake responsibilities and established norms of the legal practice.
PSO4	The inclusion of practical component in the field of teaching learning, students learn to collect empirical data, analyze it by application of law which in turn helps strengthen their field of research

COURSE OUTCOMESemester I

1001	Introduction to Law and Legal Language	To understand, identify, develop and practice essential English speaking skills during the legal studies and in the everyday life To appreciate the constituents of good oral and written language To inculcate amongst student's courtroom language To develop knowledge regarding legal concepts, legal maxims and foreign legal terms
1002	Contract Law I	Demonstrate an advanced and integrated understanding of the legal framework for contract law, including formation, content and interpretation of contracts in Indian law. Gain an understanding of fundamental principles of the law of contract and its impact. Identify and apply the elements of contract law required to create an enforceable contract. Identify and apply factors which invalidate a contract. Apply the required legal principles necessary to discharge a contract. Identify and apply the remedies available to a party in case of a breach of contract.

1003	Constitutional Law	Demonstrate an advanced and integrated understanding of Constitutional Law. Understand the evaluation and development of the origin and nature of Indian Constitution. Analyze the role of State in transforming governance for justice, social, economic and political. Understanding the procedure of the amendment of the constitution and basic structure.
1004	Indian Penal Code and Domestic Violence	To focus on the various substantive crimes under the Indian Penal Code. Have an understanding of various categories of crime. Understand how to read a fact pattern and identify pertinent issues of criminal law. To understand the basic principles of criminal law, punishments and to study the various provisions of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005
1201	Practical Training A	To inculcate research skills in the students with respect to civil and criminal cases and socio legal issues/matters
Semester II
2001	Contract Law II	To impart knowledge of various special contracts, law of agency, bailment, guarantee, partnership and to study the provisions of the Specific Relief Act, 1963
2002	Law of Torts and Consumer Protection Act	The basic principles relevant to other selected torts, e.g. battery, and recognize and explain their relevance and influence in the key areas studied The basic principles regarding tort remedies, and determine which heads are recoverable in hypothetical problem questions

		To study the provisions of the Consumer Protection Act, 1986 along with latest amendments
2003	Labour and Industrial Law	To focus on various aspects of management of labour relations and dispute settlement bodies and techniques Understand about labour laws and various other provisions thereby The students shall become aware of the rights and responsibilities of the management and especially workmen and trade unions, compliances and penalties under provided under the labour laws
2044	Criminology and Penology	To achieve basic understanding of the principles of law dealing with crime and punishment, penology and its contributions to the modern understanding of crime in society, an understanding considered essential for the profession of a lawyer To provide arguments in favour of, or against the death penalty To have reasonable understanding of the steps taken to reform the prison system and the modern concepts of reformation and reintegration of children who come in conflict with the law To appreciate the importance of safeguarding the rights of victims of crime
2201	Practical Training Paper I (as per BCI guidelines)	To understand the concepts of professional ethics, contempt of court, history of legal profession and bar bench relations
Semester III
3001	Environmental Law	To learn and develop international and national perspectives of environmental law To familiarize the students with the overall environmental legal regime of the country as well as its

		international obligations and would further equip the students with basic knowledge and skills to understand environmental issues. To make the students aware about the provisions under the Indian Constitution for protection of environment and the various legislative measures
3002	Family Law I	To analyze various provision of Muslim law, Parsi law and Christian Law- their sources, concept of marriage, and various matrimonial remedies available in case of a legal dispute To study the provisions under the Indian Succession Act, 1925
3003	Company Law	To teach Company Law in relation to the necessary legal framework to be adopted in the day to day functions of the company. To cover various facets of Company Law such as Meeting of the Board and its Powers, Special Frauds Investigation Office, Compromise, Arrangement and Amalgamations of Companies, Prevention of Oppression of minority shareholders and Mismanagement of the company. To understand the process of Winding up of the Companies.
3004	Law relating to transfer of property and easement	The students will be able to understand the most fundamental concept in property law including easement and registration. The concept of property and the nature of property right are basic to the understanding of law relating to property. To study the various modes of transfer of immovable property

3201	Practical Training B	To encourage students to participate at least in 2 moot courts and thereby enhance their advocacy skills
Semester IV
4001	Administrative Law	To make students aware of various aspects of administrative law including quasi-legislative, quasi-judicial and other ministerial functions of administration and control thereof The students will be able to identify, explain and apply the principles of administrative law covered in the course. The students will be able to analyze and predict how unresolved or ambiguous administrative law questions could be resolved by the courts through an analysis of courts case law and the judicial method
4002	Family Law II	To analyze various provision of Hindu Law- their sources, concept of marriage, and various matrimonial remedies available in case of a legal dispute To study the concept of Uniform Civil Code
4003	Land Law	To focus on land reforms in the state of Maharashtra and make students familiar with the provisions of Land Acquisition Act, 1894 with amendments, Maharashtra Stamp Act, 1958 and Indian Registration Act, 1908
4034/4024	Banking Law Or Women and Law	To provide in depth understanding of laws relating to Banking and Negotiable Instruments To acquire application oriented knowledge and develop understanding about regulatory framework of banks To develop acquaintance with the Constitutional provisions and provisions under other laws for protection of Women To analyze various Offences committed against Women and the laws to protect them from the same.

		To comprehend the structural framework and functioning of various Laws and Acts which focus on protection of Women
4201	Practical Training Paper II (as per BCI guidelines)	To study the concepts of Para legal services, legal training, legal literacy and legal aid
Semester V
5001	Alternative Dispute Resolution	To ensure that students are well acquainted with the various methods of alternative dispute resolution To familiarize them with the various legal provisions and case laws relating to the paper ADR
5002	Criminal Procedure Code and Juvenile Justice Act	To give thorough knowledge about the procedural aspects and working of criminal courts and other machineries To study the salient provisions of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2000 along with latest amendments
5003	Law of Evidence and Limitation Act	The students will be able to understand substantive and procedural provisions of the Evidence Law Students will be equipped with knowledge of various strategy followed by adjudicatory process by indicating the degree of veracity to be attributed to ‘facts’ before the court To demonstrate their in depth knowledge and critical understanding by appreciating the concepts and principles underlying the law of evidence and identify the recognized forms of evidence and its sources

5004	Public International Law & Human Rights	Students attain in-depth knowledge of the sources of international law (treaties and customary international law), subjects of international law (identifying rights and obligations of States, IOs, NGOs, individuals), the institutional framework (UN, WTO, regional agencies, etc.) and dispute resolution framework (courts, arbitration tribunals, conciliation, as well use of sanctions and force). To develop a strong understanding of human rights law at domestic, regional and international levels. The student can apply the knowledge of human rights to their respective fields of work, be it academics, policy makers or activists.
5201	Practical Training- C	To help students undertake research on case laws
Semester VI
6001	Interpretation of Statutes	To understand the various rules of interpretation of statutes, presumptions in law and principles of constitutional interpretation
6002	Code of Civil Procedure	To study the importance of procedural law in civil matters. Its main object is to acquaint the students with the various stages through which a civil case passes through, and the connected matters. To study the provisions of the Limitation Act, 1963
6003	Jurisprudence	To develop an analytical approach to understand the nature of law, development of law and working of a legal system in different dimensions with reference to popular legal theorists. Having an understanding of major schools of legal theory which have influenced the development of Western legal tradition and the Indian legal system
6014	Intellectual Property	To acquaint the students with basic intellectual

	Law	property rights with special reference to Indian law and practice
6201	Practical Training Paper–III (as per BCI guidelines)	To develop the skills of drafting, pleading and conveyancing in students

LEARNING OUTCOMES

The SNDT Law School has established the following “Learning Outcomes” for students graduating from its LL.B. programme-

1. Legal Reasoning

Interpret and apply law accurately as well as investigate and analyze facts effectively.

Explanation- This may include the ability to:

1. Synthesize information about legal doctrine from primary sources including statutes, case law, and regulations;
2. Use secondary sources to promote understanding of primary authorities and identify and develop legal arguments;
3. Determine relative weight of legal authorities;
4. Apply the law correctly to different facts and in different contexts;
5. Detect ambiguity, consistency, and inconsistency within and among different rules and sources of law; and
6. Investigate and analyze facts effectively.

2. Legal Research

Engage in successful legal research.

Explanation- This may include the ability to:

1. Find and then rank the weight of authority for the primary and secondary sources available for given subject areas;
2. Identify and analyze settled law, as well as novel legal questions and ambiguities within the law;

3. Use cost-effective research methods; and
4. Efficiently search on the major commercial legal research databases.

3. Written Communication

Write effectively.

Explanation- This may include the ability to write:

1. Legal documents such as motions, briefs, memoranda, contracts, letters, and e-mail, reflecting the rhetorical conventions and expectations for the particular legal writing genre;
2. Objective and predictive legal analysis that can be used as a tool for legal advice or opinion; and
3. Clear and appropriate persuasive arguments.

It may also include the ability to cite appropriate legal authority to support statements about the law and follow standard citation and attribution style and conventions.

4. Oral Communication

Speak effectively.

Explanation- This may include explaining legal arguments and advice in both formal and informal settings, adjusting both style and substance to account for both the audience and the purpose of the communication. For courses that teach courtroom advocacy, this may include the ability to advocate effectively before a fact finder such as a hearing officer, judge or jury in a simulated or actual legal forum. It may also include mastery of tribunal courtroom decorum and the procedures of the simulated or actual forum.

5. Problem Solving

Engage in effective problem solving.

Explanation- This may include participating effectively in problem solving processes with legal dimensions, whether with a focus on individual or institutional problems, as well as thinking strategically.

With regard to problem solving related to clients, this may include:

1. Listening to and engaging with clients to identify objectives and interest Interests;
2. Assessing, developing, and evaluating both legal and non-legal options to meet client goals; and
3. Managing a complex workload diligently, reliably, and within deadlines.

6. Ethical Conduct

Fulfill professional and ethical responsibilities.

Explanation- This may include:

1. Pursuing clients' interests, as guided by the relevant rules of professional responsibility;
2. Manifesting professional and ethical behavior and encouraging others to do the same; and
3. Working to improve the law and the quality of justice in the legal system.

7. Contextualize Law

Situate legal issues within broader institutional contexts.

Explanation- This may include analyzing the law from diverse and global perspectives; discussing the political, social, and economic forces that shape laws; and examining not only the likelihood of an argument or strategy's legal success, but also the moral, economic, social, political, and other factors implicated by the argument or strategy.