Preface

Directory of Women Library Professionals in Academic Libraries is a comprehensive resource listing women library professionals primarily employed in academic libraries and similar institutions across Mumbai, Thane, and Raigad. This directory provides concise information about women library professionals working in colleges affiliated with Mumbai University, SNDT Women's University, and deemed universities.

This compilation emerged from my doctoral research conducted between 2019 and 2024 under the guidance of Dr. Jyoti Bhabal. The primary objectives of this directory are to connect all women library professionals and support the building of their professional network. This network aims to facilitate various activities related to the LIS profession, such as library networking, inter-library loan, resource sharing, technical assistance, and organising seminars and other professional programs.

The directory encompasses data up to the year 2024. It is the result of collaborative efforts with women library professionals who voluntarily share information about themselves and their institutions. Data collection methods included Google forms and personal library visits. The directory is available in both hard copy and online formats. Women professionals working with academic libraries and similar institutions are eligible for inclusion. While every effort has been made to ensure accuracy, contact information such as telephone numbers and email addresses may change over time. The researcher cannot be held responsible for discrepancies arising from such changes.

To request updates, deletions, or corrections, or to have your details included in the directory, please email pmhaprolkar@gmail.com. New entries will be added to the directory as information is received.
