Ms. Victoria Rodrigues currently pursuing her Masters in Sociology from S.N.D.1. Women's University has completed her internship at the Special Care Centre – School for Hearing Impaired and Intellectually Disabled children of Save The Children India, (STCI). STCI is a non-profit organization established by the late Mrs. Vipula Kadri in 1988. Since then, it has been working towards the enrichment of lives of children and women from less privileged backgrounds through various initiatives and programs aimed at helping them lead a more empowered life. It envisions India to be a child friendly nation. Till date, STCI has reached out to over 250,000 beneficiaries in the area of education, health, anti-human trafficking and vocational training.

During her tenure Victoria was placed in the Special School which imparts holistic education to Children with hearing impairments and children with intellectual disabilities from marginalized communities. She was placed in both the sections of the school over a period of 42 days. We found her to be cheerful and able to build good rapport with the students. She was helpful in taking class alongside the teacher and helped design Teaching Learning Materials. We especially found her story telling and rhyme/songs sessions with children very effective. Her willingness to work where she was placed goes to show her sincerity and commitment towards her work.

We wish her best for all her future endeavors and thank her for being part of our journey.

To Whomsoever it may Concern

Ms. Ursula pursuing MA in Sociology from S.N.D.T Women's University has completed her Internship at Ma Niketan: Home for girl Children, from December 11th 2019 to February 5th 2020. Ma Niketan commits itself to being an overall welfare home for children and trains them in all skills possible and necessary. Along with fulfilling educational requirements, the organisation also looks after the nourishment, healthcare and vocational needs of the children under their care.

During her tenure she worked as a tutor to a range of children from the ages of 6 to 18 and tutored them in various subjects. The children are at the organisation to gainfully be educated in a cohesive and supportive environment and Ursula's work at the organisation aided many of the children to improve the quality of knowledge and attain their education much easily henceforth. Ursula helped in organising age appropriate workshops for the children over the course of her internship. These workshops were fun, interactive activities conducted with intentions of helping the children grow holistically.

She also worked for the CWC sports day conducted in Badlapur. She coordinated the events by making sure the children (of Ma Niketan) were able to take part in the events they had registered for and helped micro-manage the 70 odd kids that had participated from the organisation. Ursula also coordinated in the two day event conducted by Udaan organisation at Ma Niketan, where over 350 girls had come in from different sister organisations of Society of Helpers of Mary to participate in the event.

We found her as a sincere and hardworking individual, full of enthusiasm and willingness to learn. With her bright, creative and cheerful disposition Ursula will be an asset to any organization she joins after completion of her studies. We at CWC (Thank), wish her all the very best for her future Endeavors.

Ms. Nivea pursuing MA in Sociology from S.N.D.T Women's University has completed her Internship at Ma Niketan: Home for girl Children, from December 11th 2019 to February 5th 2020. Ma Niketan commits itself to being an overall welfare home for children and trains them in all skills possible and necessary. Along with fulfilling educational requirements, the organisation also looks after the nourishment, healthcare and vocational needs of the children under their care.

During her tenure she worked as a tutor to a range of children from the ages of 6 to 18 and tutored them in various subjects. The children are at the organisation to gainfully be educated in a cohesive and supportive environment and Nivea's work at the organisation aided many of the children to improve the quality of knowledge and attain their education much easily henceforth. Nivea helped in organising age appropriate workshops for the children over the course of her internship. These workshops were fun, interactive activities conducted with intentions of helping the children grow holistically.

She also worked for the CWC sports day conducted in Badlapur. She coordinated the events by making sure the children (of Ma Niketan) were able to take part in the events they had registered for and helped micro-manage the 70 odd kids that had participated from the organisation. TO WHOM SO EVER THIS MAY CONCERN

Door Step School is a registered voluntary non-governmental organization working to promote education and impart literacy skill among the socially and economically disadvantaged children in urban slum communities in Mumbai and also in Pune. To cater to the scattered group of children on street, Door Step School runs "School on Wheels". Through direct intervention in communities and corporation schools in both cities the organization reaches out to more than 1,20,000 children. The Door Step School has many more developmental programs for underprivileged children's overall development.

This is to certify that Ms. Aayesha Siddiqui from SNDT Women's University, Mumbai has worked with Door Step School as an intern for 240 hours from 11th January 2023 to 1st March 2023. As an intern she was placed with Ward A Cuffe Parade, Community Based Direct Education program which caters to the slum children.

Aayesha has visited Ward A Cuffe Parade community and interacted with children. She has conducted life skill sessions, reading sessions and math workshops with Ward A and Ward M children. She has helped our teachers in teaching with fun activities, games and puzzles. She conducted Online Reading sessions too. She has translated few case studies and stories. She has helped us in student performance data entry work. She also visited School on Wheels classes. She was actively involved in our class activities too.

The children thoroughly enjoyed learning with her. Her interaction and communication with the staff was very smooth and cooperative. She was very comfortable with the working environment.

We wish her all the best in her future ventures.
